

Put these sentences into the right tenses

- 1) Sally has worked/has been working in an office in Salzburg since she finished school.
- 2) John & Mary have lived/have been living in a house near Stansted airport for 25 years.
- 3) Did you know/Do you know that the farm is over 500 years old?
- 4) He had been a hard-working man until he had his accident.
- 5) The children wanted lots of presents last Christmas.
- 6) Last week we visited the concentration camp in Mauthausen.
- 7) Are they travelling/Did they travel/Will they travel through South America by car or bus?
- 8) At midnight Dracula becomes/will become/bacame a vampire.
- 9) I didn't break the table, it was Lukas!
- 10) When the fog lifted you could see the snow on the top of the mountain.

communication is the key...

- 11) I have been looking for the treasure for 2 years now, but I still haven't found it.
- 12) Susan is keeping/will keep her love letters in a secret box under her bed until she gets married.
- 13) The secretary has been sending the letters by express post for two months now.
- 14) They wanted to finish the job so they took the tools into the garage with them.
- 15) The teacher was closing the door quietly as the alarm went off.
- 16) Students wore very short mini-skirts in the sixties.
- 17) We're sure that the American Bode Miller is going to win the race tomorrow.
- 18) They had to sell everything because they wanted to move to Florida.
- 19) She can play the piano well.
- 20) David isn't allowed/wasn't allowed to go out with his mates after 10 pm.
- 21) They have been repairing the road since July, I hope they will be finished soon.
- 22) "Sara, have you done your home work?" "No I'm still doing it."

communication is the key...